

Rincon Family Services receives $20,000 COVID-19 Grant from Blue Cross and Blue Shield of Illinois

April 1, 2020 - Chicago, IL – To help ease the ongoing needs of Illinoisans created by the COVID-19 pandemic, Blue Cross and Blue Shield of Illinois (BCBSIL) has awarded Rincon Family Services a $20,000 grant as part of BCBSIL’s latest round of giving aimed at helping the helpers.

This program will support families in meeting basic housing costs, increase financial resiliency to cover other costs that families have incurred, and reduce some stress in our communities related to financial hardship. “Now more than ever, in light of an unparalleled pandemic, times of financial hardship among our communities are real and we are very thankful for this grant to allows us to continue supporting our communities.” said, Eddy Borrayo, President & CEO of Rincon Family Services.

BCBSIL selected 175 organizations across Illinois with missions focused on access to care, hunger, shelter and behavioral health care, and COVID-19 health education and vaccine access to receive $20,000 grants as part of its COVID-19 Community Collaboration Fund.

“A year into the pandemic and the health, economic and social impacts around Illinois are still great,” said Harmony Harrington, vice-president government and community relations for Blue Cross and Blue Shield of Illinois. “We’re proud to be able to help so many organizations increase their capacity to help more people receive the help they need.”
